The story primarily follows two protagonists: Golan Trevize, a rebellious councilman of the Foundation, and Janov Pelorat, a scholar specializing in Earth's history.

The central mystery revolves around the existence (or non-existence) of Earth—the legendary "Blue Planet"—considered lost or mythic by many in the galaxy. Trevize is convinced that uncovering Earth's location and truth is essential for the future of the galaxy, especially in light of the declining influence of the Foundation and the rise of new powers.

The novel explores themes of determinism versus free will, the nature of consciousness, and the search for truth amid political manipulation. The narrative weaves through complex political machinations, philosophical debates, and the characters' personal journeys, culminating in revelations that challenge long-held assumptions about the history of humanity.

Key Themes and Concepts

- The Role of Psychohistory: Asimov's fictional science of predicting large-scale societal trends remains central, with Trevize contemplating its limitations and potential.

Initial reviews suggest that the translation succeeds in conveying the novel's poetic tone, capturing the subtleties of Chinese idiomatic expressions, and rendering the characters' inner monologues authentically. However, some critics note occasional loss of cultural context, especially regarding Chinese societal references and idioms, which may require footnotes or annotations for readers unfamiliar with Chinese culture.
